

You Will Always Regret

IT IF YOU DON'T SECURE SOME OF THE BARGAINS FROM THE

Bankrupt Stock of Furniture

Barnes & Weiderholdt,
314 N. BROADWAY.

RED-ROOM SUITS | 35 Suits only left, at $15 to $175, one-half their value.

PARLOR SUITS 40 Suits only left, at $25 to $250, in Mahogany, Walnut and Cherry, less than $1.18 price.

HAT BACKS

PARLOR TABLES, EASELS, FANCY CHAIRS, in good variety, at Extremely Low Prices.

DON'T FAIL TO COME AT ONCE!
REMEMBER! Purchases not wanted for immediate delivery will be stored for a reasonable time without charge.

BURRELL, COMSTOCK & CO.

place of suspended officials were laid over for further consideration.	ary of the Treasury to issue a duplicate certificate of deposit for $10,000 to the People's National Bank of Washington.	facturers for alleged abuses in the trade, such as the adulteration of paints, the suppression of competition.
--	---	--

Delegate Can Indignant. Mr. Dingley, from the Shipyard Committee, reported a resolution directing that committee to inquire what, if any, legislation will protect the interests of the American marine employed in the fisheries and to report by next November. Two private bills only were reported under the call of committees for reports, and these began the morning hour for the consideration of such bills as might be called up.

ABOUT TOWN. FRANK SMITH, aged 35 years, was found dead by his wife this morning at 1034 North Third street.

should be punished because $500 or $300 of them are polygamists," he said to the Post-Intelligencer. "I am not going to let Hammond lead off the columns of humanity." In section 1,690, Revised Statutes, so as to make it a crime for any person to receive States rendered by the Court of Claims shall bear interest at the rate of 3 percent per annum from the date of rendition until payment of the Treasury for payment. Mr. Hammond explained that this necessity for this bill grew out of the fact that the Government was ELEVEN cases were disposed of to-day in the Second District Police Court. Thomas Ferguson and James Williamson, for gambling, were fined $25 each.

H. RAY discovered a fire in the building on the southeast corner of Second and Chestnut streets this morning and turned on an alarm which caused the firemen to arrive in five minutes.

Committee on Public Lands agreed to vote to report favorably to the House Mr. Payson's bill declaring forfeited certain grants of lands made to Mississippi, Alabama and Louisiana in aid of the construction of railroads, with an amendment excluding the

The House Committee on Banking and Currency held its first meeting to-day and organized the chairmanship of the committee to J. C. Sweeney, of Texas. No business was transacted. The House Committee on Pacific roads also met to-day.

The House Judiciary Committee, after meeting today, referred to a sub-committee, consisting of Colman, Culbertson, Bennett, and the House Judiciary Committee, to establish a uniform system of bankruptcy.

The Commercial Travelers.
By Telegram, the Commercial Travelers' Association of America, has been notified that the House Judiciary Committee, on behalf of the Committee on Presidential Elections, has agreed to the resolution and amended adopted.

On behalf of the Committee on Presidential Elections, the House Judiciary Committee, on behalf of the Committee on Presidential Elections, has agreed to the resolution and amended adopted.

When searched a bunch of keys with the seal of the House of Representatives was found in one of his pockets.

The wood-work of J. C. Fink & Co's, Lumber Kiln on the Northwest corner of Barton and Koshutka street, took fire at 8:30 p.m. last night, and the loss of the property was estimated at $10,000. Watchman Simon Kudachko, who gave the alarm, met with no injury.

WASHINGTON, D. C., January 14. A delegation, representing the National Commercial Travelers' Association and the New York branch of the association, called on Senator Platt this morning to urge upon him the passage of a bill introduced last month to relieve dental succession bill and as there were but a few minutes of the morning hour left, it was agreed that the bill should continue during the afternoon. Mr. Caldwell said he believed that the bill would pass at any time. Mr. Caldwell stated that the committee on reporting this measure had not dealt with indifference to the bill, but that the committee had many measures proposed that would more properly be taken up by the committee.

commercial travelers from the license tax. This bill makes it a misdemeanor for any individual, for himself, as a State, or municipal officer, to interfere with a commercial traveler traveling in a foreign land. Their petition on the subject was afterwards introduced in the Senate by Mr. Platt. Senator saying that it allowed unlicensed merchants from other cities to come in and compete with licensed merchants, who have a heavy license to pay.

WHOLESALE WRECKING.

The Scallop Fleet at Promised Land Wrecked in the Recent Storm.

lary of the treasury has ended the long-pending controversy in regard to the national building to be used in construction of the government building at Pittsburg, Pa., by instructing the supervising architect to award the contract to the lowest responsible bidder for furnishing granite.

RIVERHEAD, L. I., January 14.—News has just been received here that most of the scallop fleet at Promised Land, Gardiner's Bay, were wrecked on Robbins' Island during the late storm. Among the vessels were the schooners John A. Soren and John Soren, owned by Soren Brothers, New York.

Bill Nye and the Sleeping-Car Porter.
From an Exchange.

Miss Cleveland Visits the Canal.
By Telegraph to the Post-DISPATCH.
WASHINGTON, D. C., JANUARY 14.—Miss Cleveland, accompanied by the friends who are now visiting her at the White House, and by Representative Randall of Pennsylvania, visited the Canal to-day and returned at 4 o'clock.

row of the private gallery in the Senate for a short time.

FORTY-NINTH CONGRESS.

The Senate.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—Mr. Pratt presented a petition from consumers of the Grange, for a

Mr. Beck said there had come to him (he did not know what petitions to be presented to the Senate regarding the case of the man who had been shot to present such petitions, and had returned to the persons sending them to him. He had pressed that person, however, the sending of such petitions had been influenced by a circular letter from the attorney general, and that he had treated me square, and wrung his hand when he held it out toward me, and told him any time he wanted a good cool drink of butter-milk to holler through our telephone.

Mr. Heck read a copy of the letter. It asks his committee to send a letter to the Governor of New York, asking that he be pardoned. Mr. Heck read a copy of the letter. It asks his committee to send a letter to the Governor of New York, asking that he be pardoned. Mr. Heck read a copy of the letter. It asks his committee to send a letter to the Governor of New York, asking that he be pardoned.

ation, offered yesterday, called on the secretary of the National Association of Banks and Finance to call any Collectors of Internal Revenue who were not confirmed, were in receipt of the salary and emoluments of the office. Beck said he could not object to the resolution, but saw no necessity for it. The Senate knew all that was to be known on the subject. The law on the subject, passed by President Johnson's time, had been very sweeping, and he hoped the President would be just.

The Bridal Bulletin.

[illegible]

Mr. Morrell differed with Mr. Beck as to the precise date of the meeting, but he was certain that he had denied that the President could take money out of the Treasury to pay men whom he might appoint. That was the gist of the conversation.	Emile Paulsen, Jr., 2000 Falling Springs, St. Louis. Theodore Cook, 2111 1/2 N. 1st and Poplar. Madida Peterson, 311 1/2 N. 1st and Poplar.	"Everything is somewhat of a mystery," said the man who complained that the Continental Congress had been "ruined" in Europe. The proportion often one-fourth, and some times even more of the entire number of births, as shown by the official record of births, which are strictly correct and tallied by the called for by Mr. Morrell thought "manifestly" to be the property of the Government, not the interest of the Government, but of the Collector's personality. Mr. Cook offered an amendment to the bill, which would have made the property of the Government, not the interest of the Government, but of the Collector's personality.	Thos. McCorrall, 323 1/2 Market st. Amalia C. Seun, 208 Morgan st. John E. Seunish, 18 Addville, St. Louis.	Mr. Morrell differed with Mr. Beck as to the precise date of the meeting, but he was certain that he had denied that the President could take money out of the Treasury to pay men whom he might appoint. That was the gist of the conversation.

The Master Painters' Grievance.
PITTSBURGH, Pa., January 11.—The master painters of this city have issued a circular to the painters of the country with a view of organization for the purpose of mutual protection of records which makes marriage, birth and death a matter of civil record. The cause of this social liality is largely to be found in the severe restrictions which control the marriage contract and prevent the marriage of illegals, parents, qualified in the United States.

WASHINGTON, January 14.—On motion, Mr. Holman, a Senate bill was passed authorizing the Secretary of the Interior to purchase land for the protection of the association will not dictate prices, but confine itself to boycotting manufacturers who do not conform to the standards of the association is often necessary in order to become a candidate for matrimony.
